The Jupiter Jubilee and the Lake Worth Street Painting Festival will feature the work of award-winning and nationally acclaimed chalk artist Jennifer Chaparro.

The Palm Beach County artist most recently captured awards at the ArtHaus in Port Orange and at the Disney/Florida Chalk Artist's Association Festival of the Masters at Downtown Disney in Orlando.

The Jupiter Jubilee is in its 10th year and will be 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Feb 5 at the Jupiter Community Center, 210 Military Trail.

Chaparro's piece will be a 3D "Greetings from Jupiter" interactive postcard, that visitors can sit on and have their picture taken in.

Chaparro is best known for her award winning technique of using soft pastel chalk on asphalt and concrete pavement surfaces.

"The size and vibrancy of my art makes it hard to miss and creates the 'wow factor' for everyone who views it," Chaparro said.

to three days to complete. What makes the work unusual is that the art is washed completely away after each event.

Chaparro's philosophy is that street painting is as much about the performance and execution, as it is about the art.

"The immediacy and challenges of the 'canvas'

(which is often a sidewalk or asphalt street) and the weather, make each piece special and unique," she said.
